Old Collegians' Association – Strategic Plan 2016 to 2018

OCA Vision/Mission Statement

The Old Collegians' Association will serve Brisbane Boys' College alumni by promoting the Old Collegian network, and developing associated activities for it, to foster fellowship amongst its members and engender a sense of tradition and permanency in the College and its community.

OCA Objectives

The Old Collegians' Association (OCA), in accordance with the 10 objects of the OCA Constitution (4.1), generally undertakes to –

- Develop an old boy social and business community;
- Develop philanthropic activities;
- Increase overall number of actively engaged old boys;
- Become self-funded;
- Improve communications and data management;
- Connect with the school and add value for the students; and
- Promote the traditions and values of the school to the current student body

OCA Processes

The OCA aims to –

- Offer something of value to members and execute these offerings in an outstanding manner
 - i) tangible offerings (OCA programs and events eg: Long Lunch or Old Boys Weekend; the old boy connection eg: OCA Business Directory);
 - ii) intrinsic offerings (the opportunity to give back and/or have impact on OCA, BBC and the current students eg: OCA Mentoring Program)
- Communicate matters of interest pertaining to the OCA and its members through tailored communication (understand the needs and interests of its members)
- Deliver strong leadership through a professional, accountable & organised OCA Executive Committee
